Professional Development & Networking

Providing continuing legal education and networking opportunities with fellow members from across the state, in-house legal counsel, the judiciary, law schools and other bar affiliated groups is the hallmark of membership in the NCADA.

- NCADA's flagship programs, the Annual Meeting & Spring Seminar and the Fall Seminar, provide valuable resources for practical legal education specific to civil defense trial attorneys
- Hone your trial advocacy skills and network with colleagues, in-house legal counsel, judges and legal support providers across the state in relaxed social settings
- Participate in collaborative educational opportunities for insurance defense counsel and claims professionals
- Benefit from practice-area breakout sessions and CLE hosted by substantive practice groups which are free to join
- Connect and re-connect with colleagues from across the state, and invited appellate and trial court judges at annual events, regional judicial receptions and our biennial Judicial Candidates' Forum

Advocacy

Working for our members and their practices, the NCADA's advocacy includes, but is not limited to:

- Lobbying on relevant legislative issues
- Partnering with and providing legal perspective to the NC Chamber
- Supporting adequate funding of the judicial branch

Amicus

The Amicus Committee fields requests from our members for amicus briefs before our state appellate courts and provides the imprimatur of the NCADA in support of legal issues of significance to members and our clients.

Ethics

Reviewing requests for ethics opinions from the NC State Bar, the Ethics Committee provides comment to proposed ethics opinions impacting our members' practices and ability to adequately represent their clients.
